Covent Garden is London's number one destination to enjoy the magic of Christmas. This festive season the estate will transform into a dazzling hub with amazing events, world-class dining experiences and an unrivalled selection of gifts

Christmas officially kicks off in Covent Garden on Tuesday 12th November, as London's favourite shopping and dining destination hosts its annual family friendly 'switch on' extravaganza in the Piazza, in partnership with national homelessness charity, Crisis.

Covent Garden's iconic Christmas decorations will welcome its sweetest update yet as the estate boasts a 3D and 4ft high gingerbread replica of the Covent Garden Market Building. Made by British biscuit makers Biscuiteers, the mouth-watering display is made with over 5kg of icing and weighs in at over 10kg, having taken 100 hours of gingerbread making. Showcasing Covent Garden's most iconic features and nodding to the season, the installation includes the infamous Christmas tree on the East Piazza. Visitors to the estate will be able to visit Biscuiteers located in Central Avenue within the Market Building, from 11th November and purchase a newly designed build-your-own Covent Garden gingerbread house gift set.

Joining Covent Garden's iconic 55 ft British grown handpicked Christmas tree, decorated with over 30,000 lights, the estate will become London's most magical Christmas destination dazzling with 115,000 lights across the piazza and its adjoining streets. Joining the festive magic, for the first time Covent Garden will welcome Wonder Wood, an enchanting Christmas tree forest with trees dress by British and global brands. Participating stores including Tiffany & Co, Miller Harris, Olivia Burton, For Art's Sake and more will showcase their own spectacular fir couture Christmas trees, creating a beautiful backdrop for visitors.

In partnership with the British Fashion Council, Covent Garden will launch an exclusive limited edition collection of luxury Christmas stockings designed by Richard Quinn, Holly Fulton, Fyodor Golan, Alighieri, Osman amongst others. Filled with gifts from across the estate, each stocking is available via a prize draw, with the £10 entry fee being donated directly to national homelessness charity, Crisis.

The Royal Opera House will bring its theatrical magic to a festive pop up on James Street this Christmas. Featuring displays of costumes from iconic productions and a Christmas store selling exclusive tree baubles and Christmas gifts, it will open its doors from 18th November until the end of December.

Spreading Christmas cheer, stores across Covent Garden including ba&sh, Brora, Bucherer and Molton Brown and more will host exclusive in-store experiences and serve mulled wine and mince pies. For the last minute shopper, stores will stay open late until 10pm. Selected stores will also offer gift personalisation and bespoke gift-wrapping, including Mulberry, Charlotte Tilbury, Moleskine, Atelier Cologne and more.

Covent Garden has become London's gastronomic heartland and hottest dining destination, home to global restaurant concepts, including SUSHISAMBA, RedFarm, Balthazar, Din Tai Fung and Wahlburgers, along with some of the best independents including Oystermen, Avobar and Cora Pearl. Visitors looking to celebrate after a day of shopping should book in for the festive menu from Floral by Lima, or enjoy Frenchie's infamous Bacon Scones, which can be purchased to take-away as a gift or treat yourself with, exclusively for the month of December. Cora Pearl's Christmas feasting menu will see favourite dishes undergo seasonal twists and will also add Devils on Horseback and Spiced Clementine Baked Alaska to its menu.

For a festive cocktail, Henrietta Hotel's Miracle Pop Up Bar will return for the second year to serve amazing Christmas concoctions this November, with favourite tipples including the Snowball Old Fashioned, Christmapolitan, Run Run Rudolph and Gingerbread Flip. The Market Building will be home to a mulled wine pop up, with a variety of mulled wines available across Covent Garden including Laduree and a mulled tea from Mariage Freres.

Adding to the amazing Covent Garden Christmas experience, those visiting Covent Garden can enjoy shopping at the coolest brands, including newly opened A.P.C and Polo Ralph Lauren, which have joined the likes of Tiffany & Co, Paul Smith, Linda Farrow, Mulberry, Burberry, ba&sh, Lacoste, Hackett and more on the fashion front plus the biggest number of beauty brands per square metre including, Dior, Chanel, Tom Ford, Charlotte Tilbury, Aesop and more.

Shoppers will have the opportunity to support the amazing work Crisis does with homeless people throughout the year as Covent Garden partners with them for the second year running. The charity is gearing up to open its Christmas centres to over 4,000 homeless guests, and shoppers' donations can help Crisis provide them with food, warmth and access to vital services. But work doesn't stop there. At their Christmas centres, Crisis introduce people to year-round training, education and support with housing, employment and health.

This long-term support helps people to rebuild their lives and leave homelessness behind for good.
